

Ian and Kay Williamson are delighted to welcome you to their home at Au Temps des Cerises.

Ideally situated between Nimes, Avignon and Uzès and only a few minutes from the historic Pont du Gard, Au Temps des Cerises is perfectly placed as a base to explore this fascinating area.

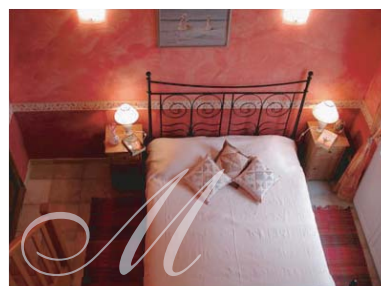

Au Temps des Cerises borders the River Gardon with access to the beaches in the river gorge. Set in a quiet lane but only 10 kms from the motorway, this is a truly tranquil location for your relaxing stay. Take advantage of our large garden with views of the hills bordering the river.

Facilities include, a large heated swimming pool, bicycles, boules pitch, dining room, sitting area equipped with satellite TV and DVD player and large enclosed parking area.

Au Temps des Cerises is a modern property designed to a high standard, with five guest rooms, each with ensuite facilities and their own private terrace. All our rooms have satellite TV, refrigerator, hairdryer, quality soaps and shampoos to pamper you.
